

I personally am not so bothered about the violence as I am the sexual content. One situation that is particularly troubling to me is "Adults Swim" being shown on Cartoon Network. This particular network is primarily designed for children and is an everyday standard channel of most children. However, at night after 9pm the content switches to "Adult Swim" with strong sexual content and sexual implications. This is something that should be featured on a more appropriate channel such as the Spike channel, not a child's cartoon network regardless of the fact that it is a cartoon. Why not replace the adult swim with old black and white cartoons more appropriate for children.
